Accolades

“Shivanandan fully succeeds in showing in this book that the Holy Family cannot be termed only the great exception to the life of the family.”

Preface by José Granados DCJM, vice president, Pontificio Istituto Teologico Giovanni Paolo II per le Scienze del Matrimonio e della Famiglia. Roma

“As one of the foremost experts on the thought of Saint John Paul II, Professor Shivanandan shows how the family is a key element in the economy of salvation precisely in its inner directedness towards creating a communion of persons”

Janet Smith, Fr. Michael J McGivney Chair of Life Ethics, Sacred Heart Major Seminary

“With eloquence, clarity, and depth, Professor Shivanandan shows why the Holy Family is not an exception, but the true model for every family. An authoritative, fascinating work – highly recommended!”

Mary Rice Hasson, Director of the Catholic Women’s Forum, Ethics and Public Policy Center.

About the Author

Since the 1970s Mary Shivanandan has researched and written articles from a Catholic perspective on marriage and family. In 1988 she was awarded a fellowship to the John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family, where she both taught and completed the STL and STD degrees. Her most notable books are Natural Sex, of which later portions were reissued as Challenge to Love and Crossing the Threshold of Love: A New Vision of Marriage in the Light of John Paul II’s Anthropology, published in 1999 and reprinted by Bloomsbury International in 2014. The present book, The Holy Family Model Not Exception is the fruit of her teaching at the Institute. Dr. Shivanandan, a graduate of Cambridge, UK, is a mother and grandmother.
